

Initial Proposal
of the
Lodi Education Association (LEA)
to the
Lodi Unified District Board of Education

January 30, 2023

The Lodi Education Association (LEA) will open the following articles under the Master Agreement between the Lodi Unified School District Board of Education and the Lodi Education Association for bargaining for the 2023-2024 school year.

Article III: Salary and Benefits

The Association is seeking to make enhancements. The association is also interested in language modifications.

Article V: Leaves and Absences

The Association is interested in language modification.

Article VI: Evaluations

The Association is interested in language modification.

Article VIII: Work – Year

The Association is interested in language modification.

Article IX. Work Days

The Association is interested in language modification

Article X: Transfers and Assignments

The Association is interested in language modifications.

Article XII: Class Size

The Association is interested in language modifications.

XIII: Special Education

The Association is interested in language modification.

XV: Safety Conditions

The Association is interested in language modifications.

XVIII: Early Retirement Benefits

The Association is interested in language modifications.

XIX: Student Discipline

The Association is interested in language modifications.