Comments from Student Representatives

Mr. Joseph Gardea, McNair High School and Mr. Logan Sweetman, Tokay High School, presented reports from their respective schools.

Superintendent's Report

Mr. Young spoke about Lodi USD no longer sponsoring the Disneyland Senior Trip moving forward. He explained that it violates Board Policy & Rule 6153 on School Sponsored Trips. He stated that Mark Dawson, Area 1 Director, and Peter Lambert, Area 2 Director, will work with principals and student government classes to help aid in the transition.

Comments from the Public

William Yates, Teacher & Parent, spoke about Superintendent Young's vision of a fully staffed district. He stated there is a large number of vacant positions and feels that a fair contract for both CSEA and LEA will get the district back on track to achieving Mr. Young's vision.

Andrew Robison, Parent, spoke about the cost associated with the proposed Tokay High School baseball field additions and suggested that the money be spent on teachers and classrooms.

Alexia Jewell, Student/Senior Class President, McNair High School, spoke about the cancellation of 8th grade promotions due to COVID-19 and now possibly missing the Disneyland Grad Night Trip; especially because of the low parent involvement at McNair.

Cris Beach, Cafeteria Manager, Clairmont Elementary, spoke about his frustrations with bargaining.

Lucas Goulart, Student Board Representative, Lodi High School, spoke about the cancellation of 8th grade promotions due to COVID-19 and now possibly the Disneyland Senior Trip.

Lisa McBride, Retired Teacher/Parent, spoke about conducting IEP trainings for parents. She commented on the shortages of special education teachers and paraeducators.

Alyssa York, Parent, spoke about her son who is in a kindergarten special education class. She explained struggles with her son being moved to three different schools and the issues involved with the transitions.

Reports

Math Update

Peter Lambert, Area 2 Director, presented the summary of the report and introduced Rafael Ceja, Director of Education. Dr. Ceja spoke about the key achievements, stating 23 of 37 schools achieved high growth on i-Ready Math Diagnostic. He went over some of the challenges and next steps involved with adopting new curriculum. He explained that the math curriculum offers lots of technology support, with personalized computer adaptive support for students that adjusts with students' diagnostics and uninterrupted math continuity from kindergarten through 8th grade. Dr. Ceja stated the district maintained stable performance with CAASPP state testing in the first year of the math adoption, which stands out in contrast to the typical decline experienced by many districts. Dr. Ceja introduced the team from Lawrence Elementary including Christine Alberg, Principal; Emmanuel Vargas, 3rd Grade Teacher; and Sokheem Sy-Prom, 5th Grade Teacher. The team commented on the positive improvements at Lawrence. Melissa Yatteau, Intervention Teacher, Lawrence, read a statement explaining the improvements Jennifer Gutierrez, 6th Grade Teacher, is experiencing at Lawrence. Mr. Lambert invited Tierney Genoar, Secondary Instructional Coach, to speak about the benefits of i-Ready for secondary education transition.

Student Representative Mr. Sweetman said test scores are a poor representation of student achievement, and Student Representative Mr. Gardea asked why intervention teachers are not at every school site.

Public Comments

Delores Flores, Paraeducator-Severely Handicapped, Parklane Elementary

Proposed Revisions to Board Policies/Bylaws: Policy 0410 Nondiscrimination In District Programs and Activities; Policy 0420.4 Charter School Authorization; Policy 0500 Accountability; Policy 1100 Communication with the Public; Policy 1112 Media Relations; Policy 1113 District and School Websites; Policy 1114 District-Sponsored Social Media; Bylaw 9322 Agenda/Meeting Materials; and Bylaw 9323 Meeting Conduct Superintendent Young pulled Board Policy 1113 District and School Websites, and stated it be brought back at a future Board meeting after further review.

Ms. Alexander questioned Bylaw 9322 on how an agenda preparation can incorporate student learning and well-being. Discussion ensued.

Student Representative Mr. Gardena asked about the last paragraph on Board Bylaw 9322. Mr. Young stated he would send an explanation via email on the paragraph in question.
