Comments from the Public

Rebecca Pisano, Teacher and Parent, Creekside Elementary School, shared what is going on at Creekside School including a recent trip to the zoo. She asked about the portables that remain at the site from the digital academy. She thanked Dr. Bal and Mrs. Alexander for their support of the Board policy for lactating employees.

Teresa Hernandez, Teacher, Joe Serna Jr. Charter School, voiced concern about working conditions and lack of staff at Joe Serna, and shared reasons that staff are leaving the site.

Christopher Anderson, Community Member, spoke about the statewide Day of Action: Fight Back Against Federal Attacks on Our Schools! rally on Saturday, May 17 at Cesar Chavez Plaza in Sacramento.

Sara M. Ramirez, Spanish Paraeducator, Joe Serna Jr. Charter School, shared that even as a five-year employee, she feels like a second-class worker. She stated the Joe Serna workers would like a better contract and benefits. She explained that the reason workers are leaving the school site is because of the unsatisfactory working conditions.

Bill Yates, Parent/Teacher, spoke about how he and fellow teachers researched and created the special education MOU that was presented.

Teresa Mendieta, Administrative Assistant, Joe Serna Jr. Charter School, spoke about the lack of equity and equality at Joe Serna, poor working conditions, and the need for the school to refocus on student enrichment.

Silvia Jacobo, Yard Duty Assistant, Joe Serna Jr. Charter School, explained her experiences at Joe Serna, including the erosion of a daily stipend incentive to the eventual layoff of a half hour per day. She states that after working at the school site for twenty years, she is still paid minimum wage. She asked for Board consideration towards better working conditions at Joe Serna School.

Comments from Employee Group Representatives

Anne Swehla Garcia, Vice President, Lodi Education Association, explained that it is wonderful to see colleagues shine in the spotlight and gave accolades to district teachers by highlighting their daily contributions and successes.

Rodrigo Contreras, President, California School Employees Association (CSEA), Chapter #77, noted that the negotiation team is working collectively with Mrs. Church and her team and have signed four memorandums of understanding and a tentative agreement to take to the membership. Mr. Contreras explained that Joe Serna CSEA Chapter #665 members could not be included in Chapter #77 because they are a charter school. He asked that the Board work with Chapter #665 so those members could achieve better working conditions.

Comments from Board Members

Mr. Nava noted he enjoyed hearing and seeing all the positive recognitions and the spotlights from the evening.

Mrs. Macfarlane thanked the Student Representatives for the time and effort they put in this year.

Ms. Alexander thanked the Board Student Representatives for their year of service and spoke about the Music in Our Schools concerts.

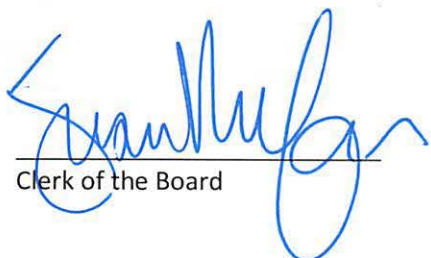

Mr. Stroh stated how nice it was to see all the positive spotlights this evening and expressed his enjoyment of the music selections from the choir.

Mr. Porter thanked Dr. Bal for having spotlights at meetings again and noted that the musical selections of the choir brought back special memories for him. He addressed concern for the Joe Serna worker who spoke during public comments and is making minimum wage after 20 years of service. He also spoke of landscaping concerns at Lodi High School and the need for adequate maintenance now and when the new ballfields are completed.

Dr. Bal shared her feelings and hopes for students and staff of the Special Education Department. She noted that she asked for spotlights to return to the Board agendas to reflect and showcase the good things that are going on in the district.
